TRUST COMPANIES.

An important company as to their permanency and reliability and claim for public patronage.
The following letter from the late Chief Justice Drake gives his view of the Washington Loan and Trust Company.
WASHINGTON, D. C., January 1, 1891.
Dear Sir: I am gratified to place in charge of your company the first trust estate I have received under the new approved October 1, 1890, authorizing the Board of Directors to receive and administer such trusts. I have no doubt that the company will be able to handle the business with the same skill and efficiency as the late company. I have no doubt that the company will be able to handle the business
